

Amendments to the Specification:

Please amend the specification as shown:

Please delete the last paragraph, beginning at page 1, lines 22-23, bridging to page 2, lines 1-5, with the following rewritten paragraph:

The first act of asexual reproduction of 'Dordogne' was accomplished when scales were taken from the initial selection and grown to maturity in a controlled environment in Rijnsburg, the Netherlands by, or under the supervision of, Cees A. van der Voort. Horticultural examination of selected plants has demonstrated that the combination of characteristics as herein disclosed for 'Dordogne' are firmly fixed and are retained through successive generations of asexual reproduction.

At page 2, under the heading, "Brief Description of the Invention", please insert the following new paragraph before the paragraph at lines 13-16:

Of the many commercial cultivars known to the present inventor, the most similar in comparison to 'Dordogne' is the Lily cultivar 'Tiber', described in pending U.S. plant patent application serial No. 09/357,097. However, in side-by-side comparisons conducted by the inventor in Stige, Denmark, the main distinctions between the two cultivars are the following characteristics:

1. Plants of 'Dordogne' have firmer stems than 'Tiber'; and
2. Plants of 'Dordogne' have flowers with a more intense red color than 'Tiber'.
